EARTH TO LUNA!

ADVENTURES WITH SCIENCE!

Earth To Luna! is a preschool series all about Luna, a six-year-old girl who is completely, undeniably and passionately into just one thing: science!

For Luna the earth is a giant laboratory and she dives into every new experience with boundless energy and enthusiasm! What most of us might ignore, Luna notices and becomes obsessed with until she answers the question: "Why is this happening?!"

Luna's missions of discovery are both real and pretend. For example, on a particularly rainy day, Luna and Clyde imagined they were drops of water, waiting in a cloud to fall to earth as raindrops.

In fact, there is nothing Luna won't do or imagine to find the answers to her scientific questions!

These three friends arrive at a whimsical farmhouse with many interesting rooms, hidden doors and secrets.

As they explore they meet comical characters who very quickly become family. An ill-tempered, territorial duck, a kleptomaniac mole with four babies, a little bat who burns in the sunlight and a short cocky pony.

Together they discover the mysteries of the farm, with mischief and danger around every corner they have to work together to solve it.
